p. [REDACTED] Arms Procured (new and completed item): Complete lists were submitted to Supply Division, by individual shipments, of all [REDACTED] arms, ammunition and equipment procured in Europe in 1951 before Supply Division assumed receiving and storing functions. These lists include information as to costs and condition in which bought. Separate lists were also furnished on outgoing shipments of this equipment to the field. These lists should assist in determining proper maintenance and issue functions.

[REDACTED]

the Agency. Following coordination with pertinent area divisions, the C & R Staff has determined a need for only 6 of these loaders. Three loaders are on hand at [REDACTED] now, and because of the excessive manufacturing cost inherent in small quantities, no steps are taken, in concurrence with the C & R Staff, to procure the small balance of three loaders at this time.

3. PROJECTS

25X1A11b

25X1A11b

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] nothing of special interest has occurred during the past week; therefore, this item is being closed from the report.

b. Pool of Cleared Contractors (continued item): No change.

4. SPECIAL PROBLEMS

a. Cargo Parachutes (continued item): The Contractor has advised, after additional study of the drawings of this unit, that the P-82 parachute pack was attached to and remained with the static line rather than being attached to the load the way the later series of cargo parachutes were designed. The intended advantage of this feature was to attempt to reduce the number of items recipients of air drops would have to dispose of.

It has been determined by the Contractor in his additional study that there was a possible hazard in the P-82 series in the entire pack assembly rotating while the lines were extending and the parachute has not yet been discharged from the pack, so that an excessive number of twists might be created in the suspension lines. This would, of course, materially delay the opening of the canopy.

In view of the above, the Contractor has agreed to supply later model packs, at no additional cost to the Agency, to be used to replace the P-82 packs. The offer of the Contractor will be accepted providing the new packs will eliminate the previous difficulties. The Contractor has been requested to supply [REDACTED] new packs and these will be forwarded to [REDACTED] Station for test purposes.

A cable has been dispatched to the [REDACTED] Station advising that [REDACTED] new packs will be forwarded to them for repacking [REDACTED] parachutes for drop tests. The results of these tests will determine if the additional packs will be accepted from the Contractor. In addition, the [REDACTED] Station has been requested to advise, in the event the tests are successful, the total number of new packs required. Only [REDACTED] parachutes of the P-82 series have been procured, and it is the opinion of Headquarters that a portion of these have been expended.

c. GSA Working Fund (completed item): This Division was advised by LO/Admin Staff on 22 December that additional moneys were transferred to GSA. Since the compiled report submitted to the LO/Admin Staff contained all pertinent information appertaining to the GSA working fund, it is assumed the Staff will resolve and report this matter when completed. This Division is placing orders with GSA for the items required by the Supply Division stock replenishment program.
